

East Will Meet West in St. Andrew's Fashion Festival

A unique theme in fashion shows will highlight the style fete planned by the Women's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal church on Thursday, May 24.

The theme for the show is "East Meets West in Fashions."

The show under the sponsorship of St. Mary Magdeline Guild will be held at the St. Andrew's parish hall, 1432 Engracia, at 8 p.m.

The latest and most dashing styles for both tall and small will be shown from Paul Diamond's Gay Shop and Neta's Tots and Teens.

Tickets will be available at the door on the night of the show.

Refreshments will be served and door prizes will be awarded.

Ruth Walker To Speak on Mental Health

"Teamwork Makes Us Helathy" will be the theme of the 259th Place school PTA meetings, at 1 p.m. today, May 17, in the school auditorium.

Speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Ruth Walker, school psychologist for the South district offices.

Mrs. Ruth Walker is a school counsellor for the elementary grades and has worked with the San Pedro Menetal Health Clinic.

She will speak on Mental Health as it applies to the elementary school child.

The refreshments period will be held from 12:30 to 1 p.m.

May board meeting was held at 259th Place school in bungalow 24.

Mrs. Gertrude Norgren's resignation as third vice-president was accepted. She is transferring to another school in the system.

It was voted to give money for the Narbonne all-night graduating class party, and for a luncheon for the A6 graduation class from 259th Place school.

The board voted to give two honorary life memberships this June.
